

Joint Associations' Security and Intelligence Seminar Program
Signposts for a Security Road Map
Canberra Museum and Gallery Theatre London Circuit, Canberra
Thursday 11th December 3.00 PM to 5.00PM.

3.00	Welcome	Jason Brown - Australasian Security Professionals' Task Force and ASIS International
3.05	Opening Remarks	Miles Jakeman – Jakeman Business Solutions
3.15	National Security Institute – The Future.	Peter Leahy – Executive Director National Security Institute, Canberra University
3.30	National Security and Industry.	Anthony Bergin and Don Williams – Australian Strategic Policy Institute
3.45	Critical Infrastructure– Future Issues	Michael Jerks - Attorney Generals Department
3.55	Australian Institute of Professional Intelligence Officers – The Year Ahead.	David Maybin – President AIPIO
4.00	Emerging Trends for Security in the Post-Terrorism Era	Associate Professor Ian Wing - Australian Graduate School of Policing, Charles Sturt University
4.15	Criminal Intelligence - The Challenges Ahead	Kevin Kitson – Australian Crime Commission
4.30	E Security – Future issues	Michael Rothery - Attorney Generals Department
4.40	New Directions in Intelligence	Dr Tim Van Gelder, Austhink
4.50	Summary – the year ahead in ninety seconds each	Panel Discussion – Rita Parker, Jim Nockels, Rod Cowan
5.05	Close	Jason Brown

Networking Function CMAG Foyer 3.00 PM until 8.00 PM.

This seminar and function is organised and supported by the combined associations and Jakeman Business Solutions and Thales Australia in support of the security and intelligence communities.

Canberra Museum and Gallery